

Question #1:

Do the words “no offense” make what Bailey said to Keisha less insulting? Why or why not?

Question #2:

Why do you think Bailey shares things that people don't want her to share?

Question #3:

What would you do if you were the kid in the middle, watching one friend hurt another friend? How would you feel?

Question #4:

What would it take for Bailey to regain Maya's trust and friendship?